A brilliantly written story of a Native American childhood with family which turns into a nightmare when he is 'forcibly ' educated and Christianised. His struggles as a man to understand his pain and a yearning for his culture and identity are beautifully woven into his passion for the game of ice hockey.

~~Indian Horse Summary | GradeSaver~~

Saul Indian Horse comes from a loving Ojibway family. His grandparents are from the 'old way' but his parents' generation are Christian, living as their ancestors had, but confused about what they believe. They are, however, determined that Saul and his brother Benjamin will not be stolen away like their elder sister, never to be seen again.
