It's Complicated (Awkward Love Book 1) by Missy Johnson (1) Chapter One. Anna. "Nick Jenson?". I stiffen and slouch a little bit lower into my seat as I listen in on a conversation that I know I probably shouldn't be overhearing. Elsa, my design professor, and the college librarian, Ms. Vincent, are deep in conversation, huddled in the row behind the reference books.

Anna was awkward as all get out and Nick was self-confidence personified and somehow they worked. The overall focus was on Nick's package and I'm glad the author didn't deviate much from that. While this story wasn't moving or thought-provoking, it was a win for me due to its simplicity. Release Date: December 13, 2017

Book one in the awkward love series and I have read these books out of order so this is the third one of these books and my least favoutite so far. I did enjoy Anna and Nick's story although Nick was no where near alpha enough for me considering the genre of this story - best friends daughter, older man.
