Founded in 1615 by Stephen Perse, its motto is Qui facit per alium facit per se, taken to mean 'He who does things for others does them for himself'. The School began accepting girls at 11 and 13+ in September 2010 and was fully co-educational by September 2012.

'Perse' is a member of the Headmasters' and Headmistresses' Conference, an association of the leading UK independent schools. The organisation now compris

There are around 60,000 minutes in a school summer break. There's plenty of time to do something interesting! The Perse Summer School is about 'learning with fun'. Most of our courses run for a week of mornings or afternoons during which children will learn new knowledge and develop new or existing skills: baking, science, maths, environmental issues, hockey, golf, tennis, public speaking, photography and many more.
